No More Dust.

VETERAN DUST EXTERMINATOR SWEEPING COMPOUND

is the successful result of years of diligent study and careful experiment. It is not a liquid, but is manufactured in granulated form. An every day necessity, not a luxury. It absorbs dirt and prevents dust from rising during the process of sweeping. It makes bare floors clean and smooth, saves scrubbing, kills the dust and germs, brightens up old carpets and rugs, obviates disastrous consequences of an inevitable cloud of dust while sweeping the old way.

Used on Floors, Tiles, Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Carpets and Rugs, and possesses properties that firmly grip the dust and dry-clean them.

Practically Indispensable for Dwellings, Offices, Stores, Warehouses, Public Buildings, Schools, Colleges, Hospitals, Churches, Theatres, Halls, Restaurants, Hotels, Factories or wherever microbe-infested dust accumulates on floor space.

It is inexpensive; pays for itself by saving hundreds of dollars in damaged goods each year, and it is guaranteed to do the work of exterminating dust.

Dust Breeds Consumption!

Dust is extremely disagreeable as well as dangerous, everybody admits that and argument is unnecessary. Dust is destructive, hence the necessity of using a Sweeping Compound of Established reputation and dependable quality, being guaranteed Antiseptic and a Disinfectant.

Carpets, Rugs and Art Squares

Why take up carpets and beat them to pieces when the Veteran Dust Exterminator Sweeping Compound will gradually clean them where they are and bring back their original colors on the floor without taking them up?

This sweeping Compound does not lay the dust, but removes it from the floor by absorption. No dust rises and sweeping becomes an unalloyed pleasure instead of nasty drudgery.

Diplomatic.

The late Lord Savile used to say that high diplomatists had always to be on their guard against intriguing women, mainly Russian agents, who would use any wile to extract information. During the Russo-Turkish war, when Europe was always on the verge of a crisis and Russian statesmen were most anxious to know what England would do under given circumstances, a lady came up to him suddenly at a ball and said:

"I hear that the Russians have made a forced march and entered Constantinople," hoping, no doubt, that he would be surprised into some indiscreet expression.

He merely replied:

"Indeed! And I suppose the sultan has conferred on them the order of the Turkish bath?"

The lady continued gravely:

"And they say in Paris that if England does not interfere the eastern question is settled in favor of Russia."

"And that," replied his excellency, "is, I suppose, the new judgment of Paris."

The Raising of Rice.

The cultivation of rice extends back into the dim past, and there are no authentic records as to when it first began. Evidence points, however, to the Chinese having been among the earliest people to cultivate it, and such great value was attached to it that in the annual ceremonial sowing of important plants inaugurated by the Emperor Chingong so far back in the past as 2800 B. C. the rice had to be sown only by the emperor himself, while the four other plants of the ceremony might be sown by the princes of his family. In India rice has been cultivated from time immemorial. It was introduced at an early period into Syria, Egypt and other parts of northern Africa. In more modern times rice has been sown in Spain, France and Italy, the first cultivation in the last named country being stated to have been near Pisa in 1468. The plant is believed to have been introduced into America in 1647, when Sir William Berkeley raised a crop of sixteen bushels from half a bushel of seed.

The Waiter's Tip.

"Splitting a five dollar bill with a waiter when you reach a hotel and promising him the other piece when you leave if well served is a poor game," said a veteran waiter in one of New York's biggest hotels.

"A man tried it on me once, and it made me sore. I took pains to serve him poorly, showing that I did not care for his money. I was so careless that when he was leaving he refused me the other half. I had him sized up for a cheap skate, so I pointed out to him that the piece he had was no good to him as it was and offered to buy it from him for $2. He thought deeply a minute and declined. Then I offered to sell my half for $3. Somehow or other this appealed to him, and he bought it and seemed happy. I'll bet he hasn't stopped figuring out yet whether he won or lost. One thing he's sure of—he didn't tip the waiter."—New York Sun.

A Gentle Hint.

A certain butcher is renowned among his contemporaries for the quaintness and originality of some of his remarks. On a road leading to a neighboring parish he one day owed him for some meat. After a salutation the gentleman remarked:

"That's a fine fat dog you have, Alexander."

"See weel he may, sir," was the reply, "for he has an easy conscience and is out of debt, and that's mair than you or I can say."

The hint was taken, and the butcher got his money next day.—London Answers.

Waiting to Find Out.

Cincinnati Tourist (who for the first time has just entered a restaurant in Paris)—Have you ordered? St. Louis Tourist (who has reached the table some minutes before and who looks up from a French bill of fare)—Yes. Cincinnati Tourist—What did you order? St. Louis Tourist (impatiently)—How do I know?—Chicago News.

The Funny Doctor.

Dr. McCree—My dear Mrs. Goodman, how could you bring out a young child on such a day as this with such a strong east wind blowing? Mrs. Goodman—Ah, doctor, you will always have your little joke. How can a child of this age possibly know what wind it is?—London Answers.

Perfectly Cool.

Mr. Fligg—Gasser says he kept perfectly cool last night when that burglar got into the house. Mrs. Fligg—So his wife told me. She found him trying to hide in the refrigerator.—Boston Transcript.

Food and Fresh Air.

You can live forty days without food, but you cannot live four minutes without air. These things being true, is it wise to stuff ourselves with food and starve ourselves for want of air?

Not Always.

Tommy—Pop, what is the difference between a probability and a possibility? Tommy's Pop—A probability, my son, is something you want to happen.—Philadelphia Record.

Taught Him a Lesson.

"Why don't you give your wife an allowance?"
"I tried that once, and she spent it before I could borrow it back."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
